

Child Care Designed for Working Parents

Mattel Child Development Center

Working parents shouldn't have to choose between child care and early education. Our programs ensure you don't have to, with convenience for your workday and enriching learning experiences for your child.

Call to schedule a tour and learn how your child can join the Mattel Child Development Center family!

At our center, you'll find:

- Reliable, high-quality child care that fits your busy lifestyle
- Discovery Driven Learning™ that encourages children to see the world as an invitation to learn, to grow, and to live fully
- Passionate, professional, and certified teachers
